

η -Car fact sheet

$D \sim 2.3 \text{ kpc}$

2 (or more) star system (Iping+, 2005)

$M_{\text{tot}} = 100 M_{\text{sun}}$

$L = 4 \times 10^7 L_{\text{sun}}$

light echoes of η -Carinae

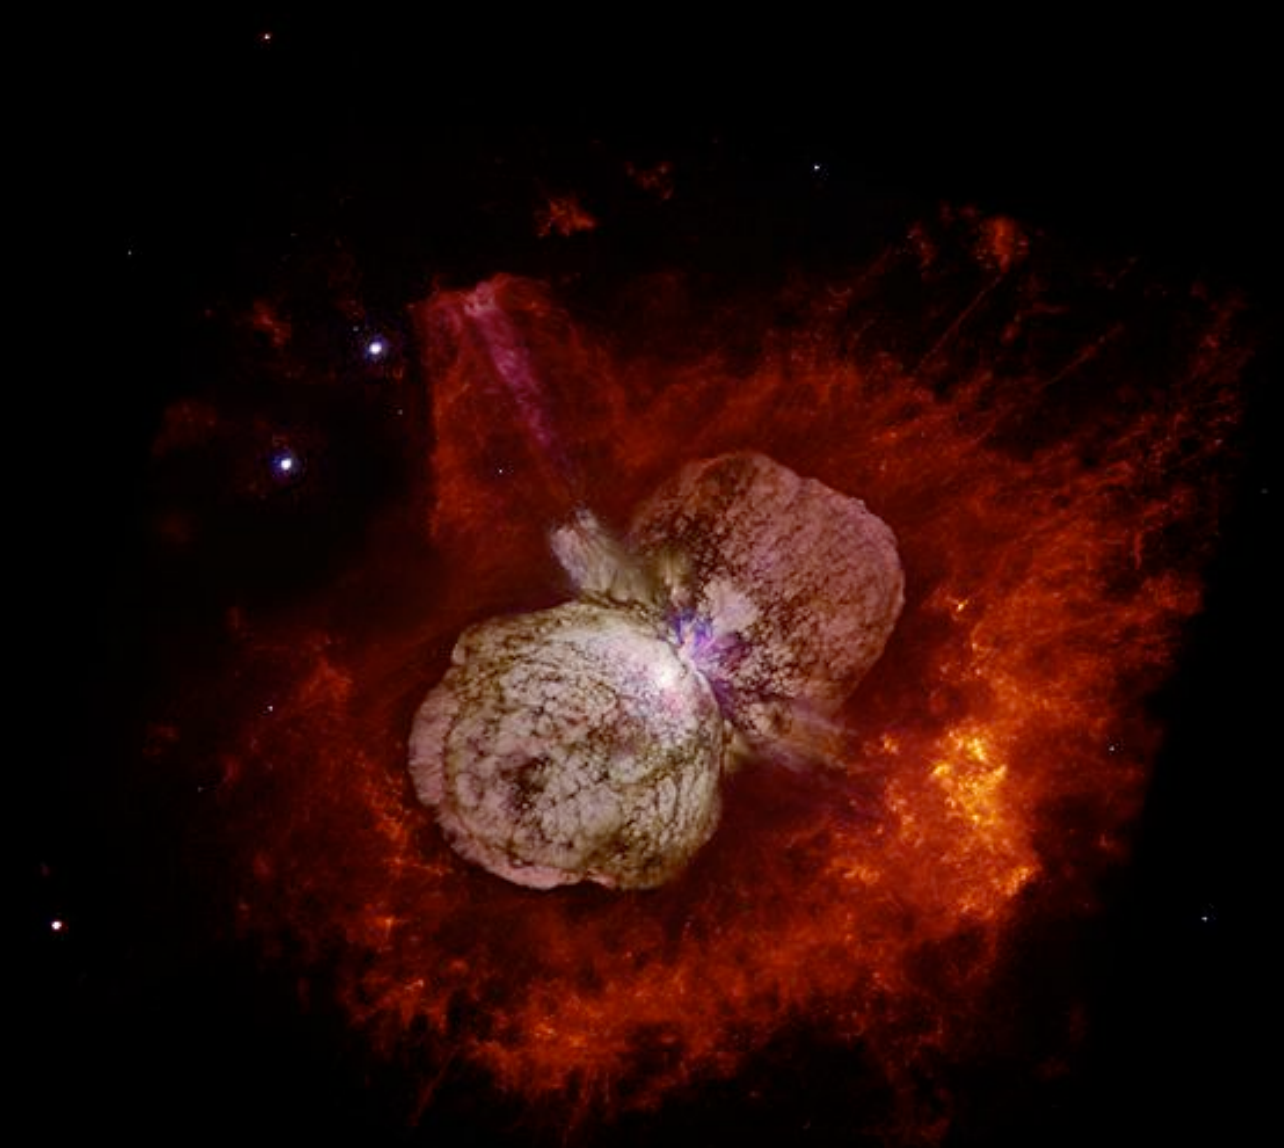

η -Car fact sheet

$D \sim 2.3 \text{ kpc}$

2 (or more) star system (Iping+, 2005)

$M_{\text{tot}} = 100 M_{\text{sun}}$

$L = 4 \times 10^7 L_{\text{sun}}$

Sir John Herschel noticed it in the southern sky while conducting a survey from Cape Town, South Africa and described its 'sudden flashes and relapses'... this star is ... 'fitfully variable to an astonishing extent' (Herschel 1847).

light echoes of η -Carinae